

Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

POST CARD

WOODWARD AVENUE enjoys the unusual distinction of being both Detroit's leading business and residence street. It is named in honor of Judge Woodward, one of Detroit's foremost citizens in the pioneer days, and stretches approximately north and south. At its foot are the ferry docks where boats leave regularly for Windsor, Ont., Belle Isle and Bois Blanc Island.

THE ADDRESS ONLY TO BE WRITTEN HERE.

UNITED STATES
AND CANADA,
ONE CENT.

—
PLACE STAMP
HERE.

—
FOREIGN,
TWO CENTS.